

Introduction

Zidel Financial, Inc. is an investment advisory firm registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It is important for you to understand how advisory and brokerage services and fees differ to determine which type of account is right for you. There are free and simple tools available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/crs which also provides educational materials about investment advisers, broker-dealers and investing.

What types of investment services and advice can you provide me?

As an SEC-registered investment advisor, Zidel Financial, Inc. offers its investment advisory services to clients for an ongoing asset-based fee based on the value of investments in your account. Our advisory services include financial planning and investment advice. Financial planning includes tax planning, insurance planning, retirement planning, and estate planning. Zidel Financial does not provide legal or tax advice. If you open an account with our firm, we'll meet with you to understand your current financial situation, existing resources, goals, and risk tolerance. Based on what we learn, we'll recommend a portfolio of investments that is regularly monitored when Zidel Financial, Inc. receives their statements, either monthly or quarterly. If necessary, the portfolio(s) will be rebalanced to meet your changing needs, stated goals and objectives as part of our standard services.

Our accounts are managed on a discretionary basis which means we don't need to call you when buying or selling in your account. You will sign an investment management agreement giving us this authority. This agreement will remain in place until you or we terminate the relationship. Additional information about our advisory services is discussed in Items 4 and 7 of our Firm Brochure which is available at: adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/135047

Questions to Ask Us:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications?
- What do those qualifications mean?

What fees and costs will I pay?

Fees and costs affect the value of your account over time. Please ask your adviser to give you personalized information on the fees and costs that you will pay. You will be charged an ongoing fee that is calculated and collected on a quarterly basis based on the value of the investments in your account. Our fee schedule is 0.50% annually for clients with up to $5,000,000 under management and are negotiable. The quarterly fees will be automatically deducted from your account. The more assets there are in a client's accounts, the more a client will pay in fees, and the firm may therefore have an incentive to encourage the client to increase the assets in his or her account.

The broker-dealer (custodian) that holds your assets can charge you a transaction fee when we buy or sell an investment for you. The broker-dealer's transaction fees are in addition to our advisory fee for our investment advisory service.

You could also pay charges imposed by the broker-dealer holding your accounts for certain investments and maintaining your account. Some investments, such as mutual funds and exchange traded funds charge additional fees that will reduce the value of your investments over time.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Additional information about fees and other costs is discussed in Item 5 of our Firm Brochure. Our Firm Brochure is available at: adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/135047

Questions to Ask Us:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs will affect my investments.
- If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs and how much will be invested for me?
- How do you determine what fee I will be charged?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interests ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. An example of a conflict of interest is insurance commissions from the sale of insurance products to clients.

The firm's revenue is from the advisory fees we collect from your accounts each quarter.

Additional information about our conflicts of interest is discussed under Items 10, 11, and 12 in our Firm Brochure which is available at: adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/135047

Questions to Ask Us:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are employees of the firm and are paid a fixed monthly salary. For those employees who are licensed advisors, they also receive on a quarterly basis a portion of the advisory fees for accounts they manage and/or the firm's total advisory fees.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes. Please refer to Item 9: Disciplinary History in the firm's Brochure (ADV Part 2A).

Visit www.investor.gov/crs for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

Questions to Ask Us:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
